

[C] [E] [Am] [F]
When I told you I was leaving, you didn't believe what I said.

[C] [E] [Am] [F] [C] [G]
You just went right on sleeping babe, and rolled over in your bed.

[C] [E]
Now were you surprised to open up your eyes,

[Am] [F]
And find that I had moved on.

[C] [E] [Am] [F]
Oh, Honey your loving man has packed all of his things,

[C] [G] [C]
And taken that last train and gone.

[C] [E] [Am]
You can't say I didn't warn you, I told you 'bout a hundred times.

[F]

[C] [E] [Am] [F]
You had fifty-seven ways of being mean to me,

[C] [G]
fifty-seven varieties like Heinz.

[C]

[E]

But now I've had enough of that same old stuff,

[Am]

[F]

And so I'm moving on.

[C]

[E]

[Am]

[F]

Oh, Honey your loving man has packed all of his things,

[C]

[G]

[C]

And taken that last train and gone.

[C]

[E]

[Am]

[F]

I really hope you're feeling sorry for all the times you made me cry,

[C]

[E]

[Am] [F]

Oh, you could've made life so much easier Babe,

[C]

[G]

but you did not even try.

[C]

[E]

So see you around but not in this old town,

[Am]

[F]

Your man is moving on,

[C]

[E]

[Am]

[F]

Oh, Honey your loving man has packed all of his things,

[C]

[G]

[C]

And taken that last train and gone.

[C]

[G]

[C]

He's, taken that last train and gone.